

Israel/Palestine Storyboard Rubric

Storyboard: – a set of hand drawn sketches, arranged in sequence that will tell a story (like a comic strip).

Directions – Create a storyboard showing the history of Israel in the correct order. Your storyboard must be neatly drawn (stick figures are acceptable), colored neatly, include descriptive captions written in COMPLETE SENTENCES beneath EACH box, and have all the following events listed below. You will use each event listed below once.

EVENTS (Number them from earliest [1] to most recent [10])

- | | |
|---|--|
| _____ Many Jews forced to leave Palestine | _____ British mandate |
| _____ World sympathetic toward the Jews | _____ U.N. Partitions Palestine |
| _____ Arabs go to war and lose | _____ Israeli parliament votes to leave Gaza and part of West Bank |
| _____ Holocaust | _____ Israel declares its independence |
| _____ Israel starts to build security fence | _____ Intifada (Arab protesters) |

_____ Extra items needed for A : _____, _____

* When writing your captions try to use the following words/phrases: because, this led to, this resulted in, this was significant/important because...*

CONTENT: Each event present: D C B A
CAPTION QUALITY	UNSATISFACTORY (D)	INCONSISTENT (C)	MEETS EXPECTATIONS (B)	EXCEEDS (A)
	Captions are so incomplete/wrong as to show little understanding.	Some captions explain the importance of each event, but others are basic, not clear, or have errors.	All captions explain the importance of each event, but some don't have great detail.	All captions explain the importance of each event.

WORK HABITS: Appearance, class productivity, grammar, on-time: U C B A blurry format example (captions could also be on separate page)

